Calling attention to a matter of urgent Public Importance-Regarding Rampant Corruption, Mismanagement and Malpractices in the Nationalised Banks and the action taken by the Government in the matter—Contd.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Calling Attention to a matter....

SHRI SURESH KALMADI (Maharashtra): Madam, since the Minister is here, I would like to know when the Airbus is going to fly. We want a parliamentary probe into the Airbus affair. We spend 15 lakhs on advertisement. We would like to know when it will take off. Yes, Mr. Arif, you can say something on this. She has given you permission.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Neither have I given you permission nor have I given him permission. Even I have not allowed you to speak.

SHRI SURESH KALMADI: It is a matter of great importance. Now that he has come back, he should tell us. Every day we are losing one crore. We have already lost 200 crores. We would like to know when the Airbus is going to fly. Madam, he announced it. Why has it not taken off? Now he has come back. He should let us know. It is a matter of great importance.

THE MINISTER OF ENERGY WITH ADDITIONAL CHARGE OF THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI ARIF MOHD. KHAN): Madam, the last Session concluded with my reply on the discussion here initiated by the hon. Member on Civil Aviation. I must say that all the reasons that I had given for the decision to ground this fleet, had been appreciated by the hon. Member. I can only say that the moment we are satisfied...

SHRI SURESH KALMADI: But you announced that it will take off.

SHRI ARIF MOHD. KHAN: Let me complete my sentence.

SHRI SURESH KALMADI: Madam, he announced....

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: That matter is over.

SHRI ARIF MOHD. KHAN: Let me complete, at least. I do not know a grammar where I can sum up in one sentence. And I do not know why he is shouting.

SHRI SURESH KALMADI: Because the public wants to know this.

SHRI ARIF MOHD. KHAN: Then let me, at least, complete.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Excuse me. Just a minute. He is not obliged to answer.... Just a minute. Please take your seat. He is answering, but no you should not interrupt him.
